STAT

I have looked into this matter again and our situation is much the same as when I wrote you on 30 September.

However, we do not have a complete file of personal history data on him which would be useful in assisting us to maintain in his behalf a continuing review of our possibilities here. In particular, we do not seem to have a current address for [redacted]. If you will be good enough to give me his address I will have our Director of Personnel talk to him and obtain the full data we would like to have in order to consider him properly against future requirements which might arise.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director
